In connection with this drive The Glendale Evening News will publish a list of contributors, together with those who already have given substantially.

Mr. Robinson will assume his formal duties on May 15 and his appointment is for the balance of this year.

He was notified of the council's selection by a committee of two, R. L. McCourt and Nathan Rigdon. An advisory committee of three members is to be appointed by Charles L. Chandler, chairman of the council, to confer with Mr. Robinson and outline a program for the coming summer's activity.

Those In Attendance

SCIENTIST WILL BE FINAL SERVICES BY OPENING FEATURE OF CHAUTAUQUA REV. BROWN HELD AT TABERNACLE

DIRECTOR DREXLER WILL ALSO BE PRESENT AND TELL OF PLANS FOR WEEK

EVANGELIST EXPRESSES HIS APPRECIATION OF SUPPORT TENDERED TO CAMPAIGN

Burnell Ford, scientist and inventor, provides the first number on Glendale's Chautauqua program to-night at the big tent, Harvard and Orange streets, opposite the tabernacle. F. I. Drexler, director, also will address the first night's audience and reveal the plans for the week of entertainment. The program commences at 7:30 o'clock.

Miss Ona Woodruff, the junior Chautauqua supervisor; Robert Funkhouser, property man; Edward Kamm, cashier; and George Wolgamott, gateman, arrived here last night and aided in the preparation of the "big top" under which the lecturers and entertainers will appear.

Viljalmar Stefansson, arctic explorer and the greatest single feature on any Chautauqua circuit this year, it is said, will be the attraction to-morrow night. In the afternoon at 3:30 o'clock Director Drexler will speak and the Misses Ada Roach, impersonator, and Ruth Freeman, violinist and vocalist, will provide the entertainment.

Big Drive Under Way

Committeemen today are making a big drive to furnish everyone with season tickets as single admissions will come high. Also season tickets purchased at the tent tonight will cost 50 cents more than if bought from the local committee.

Every program promises to be more than it is advertised and morning sessions will be announced from day to day. Among the big features offered by Ellison-White this year are "My Five Years in the Arctic," by Viljalmar Stefansson; "The Babylonian Finger Writes Again," by Tom Skellyhill; "The Servant in the House," by the Keighley Broadway Players; "Us Americans," by Peter Clark Macfarlane and a concert by Lieurance's Little Symphony orchestra.

League To Take Part In Municipal Politics

More than a score of citizens gathered last night at the office of Judge Harry M. Miller, 114 East Broadway, and organized a "Good Government League," which it is expected will be active in the coming municipal campaign. Dru Nicolas was named chairman of the temporary organization and Miss Eva Daniels, secretary. Another meeting is scheduled for next Tuesday night.

This activity is only a part of the interest shown locally and candidates have until June 3 to file their nomination petitions for the city board, city school board, city clerk and treasurer. It is understood that the incumbents of the last two mentioned offices, J. C. Sherer and J. W. Stauffer will ask re-election.

Legion Plans Basket Social; Date Is May 20

Memories of basket socials and barn dances and country school entertainments linger in the minds of many who have come to California from the eastern and middle western states.

For those service men and their wives and sweethearts who do remember such good times the American Legion basket social announced for Friday, May 20, will prove most attractive. The Ladies' Auxiliary is co-operating in planning the event.

A joint committee composed of Mr. and Mrs. James F. McBryde, C. D. Day, Jamie Shea and Gil A. Cowan met at Attorney McBryde's office last night and outlined the program for the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston On Overland Auto Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnston, who have been visiting relatives in Glendale for the past two weeks, left Tuesday on an overland automobile trip to their home in Silverton, Colorado. Their big Buick roadster was elaborately equipped for camping and purposes, as they planned to make the entire journey an out-of-doors affair. If everything turns out as expected the tour, which will be a little more than a thousand miles, will last about six days.

The Johnstons have spent the past three months in California, having motored out from Colorado during the first part of February. Most of the time has been enjoyed in the northern part of the state, they having come to Glendale a fortnight ago to visit Mrs. Henry Johnston of 111 North Everett street, who is Mr. Johnston's niece.

AUTOMOBILE COLLISION

W. R. Hoffman of R. F. D. No. 13, a resident of the Verdugo foothills, reported to the police that his machine crashed with one driven by a Mr. McDonald on Verdugo road near Lexington drive last night. Wheels were locked and both cars sent to the garage. Blinding lights was given as the cause of the wreck by Mr. Hoffman.

ITALY TO DEMAND SATISFACTION FROM POLISH CHIEFS

ROME, May 11.—Another allied crisis loomed today. Inflamed by the killing of Italian soldiers by Polish insurgents in Upper Silesia, the Rome press voiced a growing demand that Italy require immediate satisfaction from the Polish government. Addressing Premier Giolitti, the newspapers demanded that he ignore the ambassador's council and the allied supreme council by going direct to Warsaw.

DEATH OF LIEUTENANT DECLARED TO BE FROM SUICIDE

BOSTON, May 11.—Official inquiry into the death of Lieutenant Paton McGilvray, world war hero aviator, shows that he committed suicide "under unusual circumstances," police officials declared today. Financial difficulties, the outcome of the failure of a business concern here, in which he was interested, was believed today to have been McGilvray's reason for taking his life.

DAVID JAYNE HILL MAY BE CHOSEN JAP AMBASSADOR

WASHINGTON, May 11.—David Jayne Hill has tentatively been selected as ambassador to Japan, according to authoritative information today. Strong opposition is arising to President Harding's selection of Jacob Gould Schurman as minister to China. Definite and tentative selections made by Harding for American representatives in the far east are opposed on the ground that the men slated by the president for these posts entertain pro-Japanese sympathies.

GERMANY AGREES TO EVERY DEMAND MADE BY ALLIES

BERLIN, May 11.—Germany finally yielded to the allies today. With a cabinet chosen especially to accept the allied ultimatum Chancellor Wirth today sent to London, Paris and Rome a note agreeing unconditionally to all demands. The note was handed to allied ambassadors here also. Events shaped themselves rapidly yesterday after majority socialists, democrats and centrist leaders decided the ultimatum must be accepted. The reichstag accepted the ultimatum by a vote of 221 to 175, many of the opposition voting independently for the action.

INITIAL GAINS ARE WIPED OUT IN EARLY STOCK TRADING

NEW YORK, May 11.—Stock prices started higher here today but initial gains were wiped out within a few moments when forces operating since Monday again became active. Traders showed that they had expected the German reparations decision and the Berlin note had no effect on prices. Pressure on American Sumatra continued, the first sale being 1/4 down at 65, after which it dropped to a new low for the year at 63. Mexican Petroleum started higher and went to 153 3/4, up 1 1/2, but reacted quickly. American Smelting and Coppers were higher. United States Steel was unchanged at 84 3/4 and the rails were steady.

DEMOCRATIC POLITICAL BOSS OF CHICAGO WARD SHOT

CHICAGO, May 11.—Tony D'Andrea, Democratic political boss of the "bloody nineteenth" ward, was riddled with bullets in front of his home here early today. Assassins, concealed in a vacant apartment on the first floor of the building occupied by D'Andrea and his family, fired eight shots as Little Italy's chieftain alighted from a taxi. Seven shots entered his body. D'Andrea is in the hospital mortally wounded. D'Andrea's wife, Lena, always fearful for her husband's life, rushed to the street in her night garments. "Lena, I'm dying, dear," gasped the politician. "They got me." The attack on the chieftain came as a climax of months' of assassinations and slugging in "Little Italy," which gave the name "bloody nineteenth" to the ward.

DISCUSS BUDGET APPROPRIATION IN BEHALF OF GLENDALE PUBLIC LIBRARY WITH MEMBERS OF BOARD

Number of Representatives of Clubs and Educational Organizations Urge That All Money to Which Institution Is Entitled Be Included

A business and social meeting of the Glendale public library board, which was also attended by representatives of a large number of the educational organizations and clubs of this city who are interested in what the library is doing, was held in the juvenile rooms of the main library on Harvard street last night.

One of the subjects under discussion was the number of books in the local library as compared with libraries of other cities of the same size, and also the question of the budget appropriation for the library for the coming year.

Those present at last night's meeting were O. Spencer, T. W. Preston, Mrs. Charles Barker and Mrs. C. H. Temple, members of the library board; Richardson D. White, superintendent of public schools; Mrs. C. S. Hutchinson, president of the Tuesday Afternoon club; Mrs. John Robert White, president of the federation of parent-teacher associations; Mrs. R. E. Chase, curator of the drama section of the Tuesday Afternoon club; Mrs. A. A. Barton, president of the Mutual Benefit Reading circle; Max Hill, principal of the Seventh-Day Adventist school; Mrs. J. C. Danford, librarian of main library; Charles Cushing of South Glendale branch; Miss Corinne Giff, Mrs. C. D. Shattuck, Miss Gibbs, J. W. Usliton and Miss Darling.

Tells of Budget

The meeting was called to order by the chairman, O. Spencer, who told of the budget which had just been presented to the city board of trustees, and which was based on an appropriation of one and one-half mills of the tax rate on each $100 assessed valuation, which would give the library a working fund for new books, salaries, etc., for the coming year of about $18,000. According to law, the library is entitled to 3 mills, but this has never been asked for by the library board. Mr. Spencer stated that Pomona, which is a city of practically the same size as Glendale, has a library of 45,000 books, while Glendale has only 10,000 books.

In order to bring the standard of the library up to that of other cities, as regards the number of books for circulation, it would be necessary to have the full 3 mill assessment. He also stated that along with the school teachers the library help is the poorest paid in the country. He stated that the young ladies are paid much lower salaries than they could receive in other lines of work. Mr. Spencer then called on Mr. White to speak.

Books Necessary

Mr. White stated that people are so accustomed to measure things in dollars and cents that when it comes to the support of an institution which cannot be measured in this way they really do not realize what it is worth to them. He stated that the fundamental institution of civilization is the home, but that if the home did not have other institutions to support it civilization would not last. Some of the most important institutions which give this help are the schools, libraries and churches. There can be no real civilization without books, he said. Mr. White stated that he believed the members of the library board were making a mistake in not asking for the full 3 mills, because the library has been left far behind by the rapid growth of the city. He stated that the library had not been built up to meet the needs of the city as it was five years ago.

Mr. White also spoke on the great help which the library is to the boys and girls, and of the co-operation between the schools and the libraries. He stated that he was willing to stand back of any demands which the library board would make.

Mr. Hutchinson Speaks

Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, president (Continued on Page 3)

Oh, Boy! Watermelon Weighing 97 Pounds For Only 35 Cents!

Thirty-five cents for a ninety-seven-pound watermelon! Grapes at 1 1/2 cents a pound! Those were the prices paid—twenty-eight years ago in Los Angeles—by William J. McCloskey, artist, who has his studio temporarily at the Old Adobe in Verdugo Woodlands.

Among the works of art which grace the living room of the old Spanish home here in Glendale is one called "Watermelon." It has been displayed in Paris and many United States cities. Everywhere this picture has attracted widespread attention for the grouping of grapes around the massive melon, split wide open. It was done in Los Angeles in 1893.

It was in Mr. McCloskey's description of the conditions surrounding the painting that the prices were quoted and about the only comparison in cheapness today is the present prices of lemons.

Cooks, Don't Apply

COOK WANTED—First class man on Boy Scout annual trip. Apply at headquarters, 23 Infantile—off Spring.

There's a classified advertisement in the columns of The Glendale Evening News today that savors of something wrong. And investigation proves it is wrong.

It is inserted for the benefit of the Mermaid comedy company which is featuring Jimmie Adams. "Chuck" Riesner is the director. They are at the Astra plant on Verdugo road. They will reproduce the ad in film.

Cops' Color Fades

"When does blue turn to tan?"

"On May 10," promptly answered Glendale policemen.

And sure enough. The whole force is to be seen on duty in the khaki-colored uniforms which are proof positive that spring is here.

CATCH HALF-TON TURTLE

Edward Shortridge and James Greenbeck caught a half-ton turtle at Redondo Beach yesterday. They towed in the monster to the concretion of the crowds on the beach and when it was measured from the tip of its nose to twist of its tail there were seven feet of soup found awaiting the chef.

BIG BUILDING PLAN IS INDICATED BY COMMUNICATION

HEAVY CONSTRUCTION WORK MAY BE UNDERTAKEN IN CITY, LETTER HINTS

In a communication from the Austin company, industrial engineers of Cleveland, Ohio, the city building inspector of Glendale has been asked to forward specifications for heavy construction work here. The letter which was answered by F. A. Marek yesterday reads:

"We are interested in building construction in your city and as we want our buildings to meet with your approval we would appreciate one of your general building codes, giving information in regard to general building design," etc.

There was absolutely no hint as to whom the clients of this concern might be, but the importance attached to the communication by local officials would indicate that someone is planning a project of utmost importance from the fact that they have employed this nationally known engineering firm.

Interested in Factory Sites

As is well known here, a group of Ohio capitalists have been interested in factory sites locally and it has been hinted that an administration building for an industrial enterprise to be located along the San Fernando Road will be located in the central part of Glendale.

It has been accepted generally in southern California that the most rapidly developing industrial center at present lies between Los Angeles and Burbank on the Southern Pacific right-of-way and each additional factory located in this vicinity will attract another.

In replying to the Austin firm's request, Mr. Marek enclosed a copy of the present building code and stated that a revised ordinance was now being prepared.

OIL STRIKE IN RIVERSIDE

The first oil struck in Riverside county was reported last night on the Chino-Corona lease No. 1 at a depth of 3104 feet. The flow is said to be about 500 barrels a day. Drilling is to be continued with the idea of further tapping "a lake of oil." Excitement is intense at Riverside and Corona.

DISCUSS BUDGET OF LAUGHS, THRILLS AS FINAL SERVICES BY PUBLIC LIBRARY GOLDEN DISPLAYS AT GATHERING PSYCHIC POWER REV. BROWN HELD AT TABERNACLE

MORE MONEY IS REQUIRED FOR INSTITUTION IN VIEW OF
GROWTH OF GLENDALE

of the Tuesday Afternoon club, then spoke. She said that by the library and its patronage it is possible to judge the kind of people who live in the community. Mrs. Hutchinson was of the opinion that the library board should not be too modest in letting the people know why they do not always get the books they want. It is not because those in charge of the library do not know the needs and kinds of books the people want, but because of a lack of funds to purchase these books.

Mrs. Chase's Views
Mrs. R. E. Chase, on behalf of the drama section of the Tuesday Afternoon club of which she is curator, expressed appreciations and thanks to Mrs. Danford and members of the board. She stated that she has traveled a great deal and has visited many large and small cities in the United States and always visited the libraries in those cities, and that for choice of books, selection and real literary value she has not found one library which equals that of Glendale, and that we have one which we should be proud of.

Mrs. Chase stated that she realized the need for a large number of books to meet the various requirements of the patrons. She also spoke of the splendid selection of books in the library in connection with the drama.

Others Make Statements
Mrs. John Robert White, president of the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher associations, told of the library as it was twelve years ago and as it is today. She stated that she would be willing to support an election calling for a bond issue for the library, or whatever other steps might be necessary.

Mrs. A. A. Barton, president of the Mutual Benefit Reading circle, said that the people of Glendale have the library spirit, even if the library was not always able to meet the needs of the people. She stated that there are only two places in Glendale where a mother can think of her children as being absolutely safe, and that was either at the library or at Forest Lawn.

Mrs. Charles, member of the library board, then gave a talk on the value of books. She stated that the greatest happiness in life comes through education, both mental and spiritual. The schools, which are often looked upon as being the principal place of receiving this education, is really for the youth, but the library is for everyone. She told of attending several meetings of librarians and that the whole keynote of their work was the idea of service, and it is this spirit and idea of service which both Mrs. Danford and Mr. Cushing are carrying out.

Max Hill of the Adventist school added words of appreciation for what the library is doing. He also spoke of the pleasure which strangers

MYSTICIES AUDIENCES WITH HIS ACT; PEARL WHITE IS SHOWN IN 'THE THIEF'

"Golden the Great" mystified his audiences at the Glendale Theatre last night by an unaccountable display of psychic power that provided laughs and thrills. For instance, he told Ada Burns her home address in Florida. He told another man that he had eleven coins in his pocket and then told the total amount of the money. He warned one swain in the audience against making further promises to Edith when he knew that he was to marry Alice. And so it went. He will appear at the first evening show again today.

It must be admitted that his ability as a mental telepathist is great, for he ordered three copies of The Glendale Evening News of last night because he knew it had him in a headline and he ordered three copies of tonight's issue for the same reason. How he knows, we don't; but there are other attractions on the bill including the feature, a Rolin comedy, "Hobgoblins," and the Pathe Review.

"The Thief" in which Miss Pearl White is now appearing at the Glendale Theatre, is the fourth feature production she has made for William Fox. "The Thief" is a screen version of Henri Bernstein's celebrated play, which was a big hit in New York, London and Paris.

find in visiting the library and of the help those in charge of the library had given the boys and girls of his school in directing their choice of books into the right channels.

Mr. Cushing, librarian of the branch library, told of the growth of the library in the southern part of the city. He also told of the change of the demand from fiction to the better class of books by the patrons of that library. Sometimes it is not possible to meet the demands of the patrons either at the branch or at the main library. This he stated was not because of the lack of co-operation and willingness on the part of those in charge, but because of the lack of funds.

Mr. Uffton stated that he was of the opinion that the members of the library board should be penalized for not asking for the full 3 mill appropriation, and that he agreed with the views expressed by the other speakers.

T. W. Preston, member of the library board, stated that although the library board has never asked for the full 3 mill appropriation, yet the amount asked for has not always been allowed, because other things had been considered more necessary by the members of the city board of trustees.

Mrs. Danford, librarian, expressed her appreciation of the support which was assured her in the talks of the representatives of the various educational institutions of the city.

EVANGELIST EXPRESSES HIS APPRECIATION OF SUPPORT
TENDERED TO CAMPAIGN

not his call. How many times has God called you? In childhood, in youth, in young manhood or womanhood, in middle life, and still you have not obeyed? In all the brave acts of live recorded in story or song there are none as brave as to courageously stand out for Christ. It takes manhood and womanhood to leave the crowd; step over the line and crown Christ king of your life.

As Thinking People
"I appeal to you as thinking men and women, although none can find Christ by cold thinking; but you will never get saved unless you think. Let me give you some reasons why you should prepare to meet your God: because some day we shall meet Him. When? With some it may be ten years, some five years, 1 year, six months, one month, and possibly some twenty-four hours. Can anyone be prepared? The normal life should be a prayed-up, paid-up, lived-up, ready-to-go life; as joyous as the boy, when the college term is ended, leaves the school for home. The prepared life is the happy life.

"Why should we prepare? Because God has provided, at an awful cost, a way. I believe, without the shadow of a doubt, that Christ died on the cross for my sins; He paid the debt for me as though I was the only one; and I warn you to look out and steer clear of the modern religion that denies the Deity of Christ and His atoning blood. We don't love Christ enough; there is nothing that I would not lay aside for Christ, and yet I do not love Him enough. We don't begin to appreciate as we ought His great sacrifice. A vessel at sea, loaded with passengers, became disabled. The captain came on deck and said, 'We are all lost unless someone will risk his life to stop the leak.' A young man volunteered; he repaired the vessel, but lost his life. When the vessel came to shore the grateful passengers erected a marble monument. On it they had chiseled the names of the passengers, the name of the man who saved the vessel and underneath his name these words: 'He gave his life to save ours.' This is just what Christ did for us.

To Stand Unprepared
"It is an awful thing to stand before God unprepared. There is one verse that we are all agreed upon, Christians, skeptics, believers or unbelievers: 'It is appointed with man once to die.' A man may lose his reputation and regain it; may lose his health and recover it; may lose his money and win it back, but if once dead no regaining, no recovery, no chance to win it back. Does the grave end all? No! For after death the judgment. Christ says: 'Marvel not at this, for the hour is coming in which all that are in the grave shall hear His voice,' and again, 'If ye confess me I will confess you before my father which is in Heaven.' at that last day when you stand in the presence of a just God—stand there defenseless. What do you want Christ to do? I know what I want; I want Christ to confess me before his father. Do you want him to confess you? And if you do, can you expect to do less than to confess Him before your fellow man? Come! No better time than now; it is the brave life, the intelligent life, the normal life, the happy life."

A large number came in response to this earnest appeal. And so closed the last service of a two weeks' campaign "to lift Glendale up to a higher plane of Christian living."

That it has been successful many of citizens testify. Many hearts will join John Edward Brown and his associates a hearty God-speed and look forward to the time when he and his aides may again visit Glendale.

See Rome And Die If You Must, But See Glendale
And Live, Writes E. C. Hale to 'Dear Katie' As He Is Describing City As It Looks From Top Of Hill

Glendale, May 11, 1921.

Dear Katie—Well today I went to The Evening News office as usual and I got there promptly a half hour late.

The boss was there and he says "Well what are you going to write about today?"

Well, I say kinda offhand, I guess I'll go over to Beverly's Hill and have an interview with Pauline Frederick and ask her why don't she move to Glendale. And Katie, the boss glared at me so I thought he might cut my wages in two and if he did there wouldn't be anything left and he says:

"No, you don't get no vacation off like that. You just stay in Glendale."

So at that Katie I took down my tent and silently rolled away.

This work is a joy killer anyway. Starvin' poets and strivin' artists have got a 24 carrot time of it compared with us reporters.

So I decided to take a day off anyway to a place where I could think and dream and write to you Katie, cause it's better to be lonesome at times than never to be lonesome. To go where the bells of cars, the rattle of flippers, the advice of people, the clang of cash registers and the price of eggs was beyond the tips of my shell like ears.

Hikes for Hills

So I started for the foot hills of Glendale. It was a long walk, but at last I began to climb the hills at the end of Louise street. It was uphill work sure enough, but that came natural in a reporter's young life.

It was one of those clear, balmy vacation days which is a habit in California and the atmosphere fairly oozes with exhilaration and the birds buzz and the bees sing—I mean sting and the flowers bust forward with song and the—well anyway I finally got to the top of the summit and then I looked around me and—Katie I only wish that you and my thousands of friends back there in old Wisconsin could be stood by my side and looked down on the city of Glendale as I did at that minute.

I am sure that you one and all would sell off the families jewels to raise the price of admission and come to this haven of rest which is the Jewel City in itself.

And here I could gaze far down into the silvan retreats of the canons and I realize that one fatal step would send me tumblin' down onto the rocks a thousand feet below. Don't that sound dramatic Katie. But I wasn't going to tumble cause if I did, it would be spoiled my whole day.

In the stimulant sunshine I look across the city and I ain't had such a thrill since the Armistice was signed, and I am lost in thought, lost in admiration and lost for words to tell you how lost I really am.

Sits Down, Then—

So I decided to sit down so as to look upon this Paradise and Katie I set down on one of those eternal cactus bushes and for a few minutes the city of Glendale looked like a cannibal village in the Fiji Islands. That is the way I felt anyway.

But as I sit there I all to once decided I would write an article on Glendale so as to keep my job and which would keep the coyote out of the chicken coop or words to that effect.

So here I give you a little gography on the matter at hand.
Glendale is bounded on the north by green fervent hills that slopes up to the grandness of the higher peaks (like I'm settin' on) and they seem to roll off to the north until they blends with the atmosphere itself. On the west is the movin' picture world, the same which includes Hollywood, and part of Los Angeles.

And on the east is Eagle's Rock and the rest of the United States.

And all this just goes to show that everything of lesser importance is in a opposite direction of Glendale. There is no extremes of temperament in the climate here Katie.

Glendale made the climate famous and the thermometer is ideal.

Earthquakes here are as scarce as banana vines on the Yukon.

And under that quiet surface and dreamy complexion of the city there

COLONEL BUSH HOST NOT ONE BREAK IN BEHALF OF GUESTS FROM OAKLAND FAVOR OF LOCALS; LOSE 2 TO 7

VERDUGO WOODLANDS HOME IS SCENE OF SOCIAL LIFE; JOHN JONES RETURNS

Mrs. Ione White and her granddaughter, Miss Mary Stewart, who have been guests for the past several months at the Colonel Bush home on El Rito Drive in Verdugo Woodlands, left Monday for Oakland. They took the boat north from San Pedro.

Colonel Bush has one of the beautiful homesites in the Woodlands where he has retired after an active life in the United States army. He and his wife have entertained considerably in honor of their guests.

Returns from Iowa

John Jones of El Rito Drive and Hermosito Way, Verdugo Woodlands, has returned from Storm Lake, Iowa, to which place he accompanied his brother-in-law from Long Beach. Shortly after their arrival there, the latter died. Mrs. Jones remained in Glendale.

Building Five-room Home

W. L. Collins is building a beautiful five-room home on Opechee Way for Mr. Thomas of Burbank, who intends moving to Verdugo Woodlands in Glendale as soon as the place is complete. If progress maintains as rapidly as at present, the family will be able to occupy the house by the first of the month.

Shortage In Apples, Pears, Peaches, Plums

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 11.—An alarming shortage in apples, pears, peaches, plums and cherries is feared by the department of agriculture, due to late freezes.

If prices for these five fruits are not to climb above the peak of the war period, farmers and other fruit growers must do the following, government agricultural experts said:

Nurse along what trees were spared in the stricken area.

Increase the crops in the areas that escaped the frost.

Permit no fruits to go to waste for lack of care or picking.

The principal damage was done in the central portions, which include some of the most prolific fruit growing states in the country.

COVINA TAKES GAME BECAUSE LUCK IS WITH IT; REAL CONTEST IS STAGED

Playing without the aid of dame fortune and not getting a single so-called "break" of the entire game the members of the Glendale High school nine yesterday lost a tough contest to Covina by the score of 7 to 2. The battle was staged on the home lot and was attended by one of the largest and liveliest crowds of the season.

The final score does not tell the true story of the afternoon's pastime, as the two teams were evenly matched as far as playing ability was concerned. In fact, after summarizing the several department of play it is seen that the locals excelled the Covina Jakes in everything but pure and undefiled luck. The Glendale players garnered more hits, stole more bases, made fewer errors, and appeared better on the field than their husky opponents from the citrus center. But all this doesn't win ball games without the proverbial "breaks," so why cry over spilled milk? The boys deserve considerable mention, however, for their splendid fighting spirit, which was exhibited throughout the game.

Use Squeeze Play

The visitors scored one in the second and three in the third, and from then on they were not headed. The tally in the second came on a walk, a double and a squeeze play. The three in the third were the direct result of a walk and a trio of doubles by Dudderar, Werden and Coffey.

Glendale broke into the scoring in the fourth inning when the best they could do was make a lone run on a walk and two long hits by Rike and Wilson. The golden chance to even the score came in this canto, but all hopes were squelched when Ed Rike was caught at the plate on an attempted double steal. The bases were loaded at the time and indications were such that several runs should have materialized.

A promising rally was also nipped in the bud in the next inning when "Chisel" Dennison allowed himself to be doubled-off first on a long fly to left field by Morgan. One run had already been checked up, on a walk to Fruhling and a two-base hit to right center by McNary.

The individual fielding honors for the day go to "Nap" McDonald, the star left fielder of the local squad. During the early part of the season "Nap" was played at shortstop, which is not his natural position, and as a result he did not do much self justice in the infield. His flashy fielding yesterday more than redeemed his poor showing at the first of the league games and incidentally won him a permanent berth in the left garden. In the second inning of yesterday's contest he caught a runner at the plate with one of the prettiest pegs ever witnessed on the local diamond.

Plenty of Thrills

The game was replete with thrills, both on and off the playing field. In the fifth inning an enthusiastic Covina rooter in the bleachers demonstrated his utter disregard of the strength of the Glendale battery by allowing a batted ball to bounce off his noble bean. The only harm done was that the ball was declared ineligible from further use on account of lopsidedness.

Marshall Wilson, who nearly out-did himself in the seventh by belting out a triple over the fence, was kept busy throughout the game clearing the sidelines for the benefit of the right field bleacherites. So efficient was he at the above-mentioned task that said bleacherites unanimously agreed that Wilson belongs on the right instead of the left side of first base.

Watching Scoreboard

Yesterday's hero—Babe Ruth. He knocked his ninth homer and cut off two runs with brilliant catches in the field, the Yanks beating the Tigers, 2 to 1.

Hornshy's four hits out of four times up—two singles, a double and a triple—and his spectacular fielding helped the Cards beat the Giants, 7 to 6.

Alexander returned to the game after being out since opening day and the Cubs beat the Phils, 6 to 2.

Dutch Reuther turned the tables on the Cincinnati Reds, the Brooklyn beating his old team mate, 6 to 2.

Bagby and Caldwell were batted from the box and Washington whipped the Indians, 9 to 7.

Boston celebrated "Maranville today" and the Rabbit celebrated it also, winning the game almost long-handed for the Pirates, 5 to 2.

Red Faber's fine pitching enabled the White Sox to beat the Red Sox, 4 to 1.

Senators Again Reach For League Leadership

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—Sacramento, after its set-back of last week at the hands of the Seals, today was reaching out again after the Coast League leadership.

The Solons made a good start by beating Los Angeles yesterday, 2 to 1. The Seals, defending their precarious position at the top of the column, were not asleep, however. They beat Salt Lake 8 to 1 in a game featured by two home runs, one triple and eight two-baggers.

The Tigers beat Portland 4 to 1. Truck Hannah's homer, scoring a man ahead of him, gave Vernon a lead which Portland couldn't overcome.

Seattle and Oakland couldn't play because the grounds were too wet.

Prince Of Wales Is Very Enthusiastic

LONDON, May 11.—The Prince of Wales is enthusiastic over the boom in Anglo-American sports.

While he never consents to an interview or a direct quotation in the newspapers, the heir to the British throne let the United Press know today through his secretary, Sir Godfrey Thomas that he views with the greatest interest the increase in the cordial relations between British and American athletes.

He believes the unusually large number of contests between Britain and America arranged for the summer months to be an indication of a close Anglo-American friendship that will be cemented on the track and in the field.

The prince, being a great horseman, is particularly interested in the coming international polo cup contests and hopes to attend every match. He is to spend his first summer at home since the war, and he plans to take up the game himself. He wants to meet all the American players and tell them personally how welcome they are on British soil.

Would Govern Rents In Denver By Laws

FIVE RECORDS SET BY PADDOCK NOT TO BE OFFERED

INTERNATIONAL RECOGNITION IS BEING WITHHELD UNTIL A. A. U. TAKES ACTION

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, May 11.—Charley Paddock, California speedster, will get no international recognition this year as the world's greatest sprinter. The five sensational marks made by the Pacific coast youth in the sprints will not be offered to the International Amateur Athletic Federation when it meets in Geneva May 23.

F. W. Rubien, secretary of the A. A. U., sails Thursday on the Mauretania for Switzerland, where he will attend a series of important international meetings.

He will offer for recognition twenty-three records made by American athletes since 1914, but Paddock's marks will not be included and will have to wait four years for official acceptance.

Must Await Convention

Rubien explained today that Paddock's records could not be offered because they cannot be accepted by the A. A. U. until the annual convention of the union next November.

The International Olympic committee meets in Lausanne during the week of June 2 to 7.

America will seek to have a uniform program and schedule of events adopted for all the Olympic games of the future, Rubien said. In the past the country acting as host to the world's athletes was allowed to present any program desired.

The American committee will not disclose its choice for the site of the 1924 Olympic games. Reports from the other side indicate that Paris has lined up enough European votes to assure the next Olympics being held in the French capital.

Robert S. Weaver, president of the A. A. U., says that Los Angeles is still a candidate.

Educated Men Best Policemen, Says Chief

BERKELEY, Calif., May 11.—"My experience with the men of the Berkeley police force who are college trained has shown me that these men can run rings around the policemen who have not had the advantage of a higher education," declared August Vollmer, chief of the local police department and member of the criminology faculty of the University of California summer session, to the United Press last night in commenting upon Thomas A. Edison's reported statement that college people are ignorant.

"If the college man can more than hold his own in such practical work as police duty he certainly can hold his own anywhere," the police chief added. "On the Berkeley force we have thirteen college men out of a total of thirty-two patrolmen and the work these thirteen perform is of such a high grade that we encourage university men to be among those applying for vacancies in the department whenever these occur."

The superior intelligence of the college trained man was strikingly shown by the results of tests given recently by the Berkeley police department to sixty-two applicants for several vacant positions on the force, Chief Vollmer said. The test was very similar to the army at Philadelphia tests and no discrimination between college men and non-college men. Of thirty-three who successfully passed the test thirty-one had had the benefit of college education, Chief Vollmer asserted.

It is an unanswerable argument that a college education will greatly benefit a man, the chief said. "I do not say that college training will take the place of brains, but the dub who has somehow managed to secure an education will not be as great a dub as the dub who is not a college man."

"Mr. Edison undoubtedly has let his experiences with the few influence his opinion as to the qualities of the many," Chief Vollmer concluded.

University Head Not Worried By Edison

BERKELEY, Cal., May 11.—President David P. Barrows of the University of California did not seem last night to be very deeply impressed by, and did not waste much time talking about the statement attributed to Thomas A. Edison to the effect that college people are "amazingly ignorant."

Asking the United Press reporter for pencil and paper President Barrows, who was busily engaged taking part in the proceedings of an important university committee meeting, hastily wrote the following:

"I cannot discuss Mr. Edison's statement because I don't know what it means if it actually has any meaning at all."

Since the armistice the French have re-established 3540 of the 11,500 factories which were destroyed in the war.

ous advised and suggested additions and amendments to the present constitution including changes in the number of directors and in the initiation fee and dues. These will be voted on at another meeting of the club.

Monte Vista Lodge

Mrs. R. W. Meeker then spoke to the members of the club about the progress being made in remodeling Monte Vista lodge for a vacation home for undernourished and poor children of the county and urged the members to attend the garden party being given Saturday for the benefit of this cause.

Mrs. L. W. Bosserman, chairman of philanthropy, made an appeal for garments and canned fruit for the poor.

Mrs. Hutchinson then introduced Mrs. Frederick Dowell of Chicago who told what the clubs in Illinois have done and are doing, and extended greetings from the clubs of Illinois.

Program of Music

The remainder of the afternoon was devoted to the music artists. Raymond Harmon, tenor, and Charles T. Ferry, composer pianist, who entertained the members with a most delightful program.

Mr. Harmon is a soloist at the First Presbyterian church of Pasadena. His voice is smooth and round, with an extensive range which is pure and eloquent through the entire register.

Mr. Ferry is a composer pianist of note and ability, whose compositions are being used by the foremost concert performers.

Mr. Harmon, who was accompanied at the piano by Mr. Ferry, chose for his first group of songs "Life" (Curran); "The Last Hour" (Gurley); "Just You" (Dishmont).

Mr. Ferry's first group was a sea cycle of two of his own compositions, "Thoughts of the Sea" and "Call of the Sea." Mr. Harmon's next group of songs included, two French numbers, "Blue Are Her Eyes" (Winterwall) and "Yesterday and Today" (Spross). The latter number brought forth such continued applause that he responded with "Floods of Spring" (Rachmaninoff). The next number was a group of two of Mr. Ferry's compositions, "Prelude in C Minor" and "Humming Bird." Mr. Harmon then sang "The Lullaby from Jocelyn" (Godard), and two French numbers.

Numbers Delight

Other numbers which delighted the club members included a group of three of Mr. Ferry's compositions sung by Mr. Harmon, "Come to the Woodlands," "To You," "It Is All That I Can Say," Gilbert's "Evening Song" and as a closing number a French song by Mr. Harmon, accompanied by the Ampico. All of these numbers were much appreciated and heartily received.

The next meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon club will be a business meeting.

At yesterday's meeting the decorating committee had arranged bouquets of pink roses and purple stocks on the platform, pedestals and at each window.

'Eyes Of The Heart' Palace Grand Feature

Is it cruel to deceive when the deception is for a good end? Which was better—to leave a blind girl blind—and believing her friends good and beautiful—or to give her sight, with the bitter shock of finding them common crooks?

Such are the problems unfolded in "Eyes of the Heart," which is at the Palace Grand today only. It is the newest Mary Miles Minter production for Realart and was adapted from the popular Ladies' Home Journal serial, "Blindness," by Dana Burnett.

As the blind girl whose restored sight brings a train of intensely dramatic revelations, Mary Miles Minter has a role entirely different from anything she has ever done. The struggle through disillusionment to happiness is said to be an especially rare piece of acting.

Certainly "Eyes of the Heart" satisfies the plea that an exhibitor give his patrons a "variety" of amusement. The play is entirely different from any previous Minter productions.

And if you want to laugh, Clyde Cook in "The Huntsman" will provide you with sheer tears of joy. Then there will be the latest news views and a musical program equal to the pictures featuring "Beautiful Galathea" as the overture.

HONORARY PRESIDENT

C. A. Stuart, proprietor of the Glendale pharmacy, corner of Broadway and Glendale avenue, has been exceptionally honored by being named on the national committee of the National United Americans, Inc., of Washington, D. C.

President Warren G. Harding has accepted the honorary presidency of the organization, it is said, and Charles M. Schwab is the active president.

In accepting the honor yesterday Mr. Stuart stated that the purposes of the new organization is to instill patriotism and good will in the nation again, as it is the belief of the founders that a spirit of ill-feeling has become apparent since the common cause against a common foe was dropped for peaceful pursuits.

"I am heartily in favor of such a movement," said Mr. Stuart, "and I am against anything which savors of class legislation or mob rule."

THE U. S. ROYAL CORD

A famous tire—and a famous tread. Acknowledged among motorists and dealers alike as the world's foremost example of Cord tire building. Always delivering the same repeated economy, tire after tire, and season after season.

The stripe around the sidewall is registered as a trade-mark in the U. S. Patent Office.

How you can measure tire value in 1921 —

OFTEN it's surprising the number of different tire views that come out in a chance talk at the curb or in the leisure of a friend's garage.

Almost every day you come across the man human enough to believe he can outguess the cut-price tag on "job-lots," "discontinued lines" and "surplus stocks."

His opposite is the hard-pan car owner who sticks year in and year out to a standard brand as the only rational economy.

Many will remember the scarcity of U. S. Tires last year.

A hardship at the time, but a benefit now. There are no U. S. Tires to be worked off—no accumulations—no forced selling of any U. S. brand—no shipping of tires from one part of the country to another to "find a market."

There are 92 U. S. Factory Branches. Each one gets its share of U. S. Tires. There is a broad, constant, even distribution of U. S. Tires always going on from these Branches to the dealer.

Buy a U. S. Tire anywhere—in a community of 500 people or even less—and you get a fresh, live tire of current production—with all the original service and mileage the factory put into it.

The owner of a medium or light-weight car stands on equal ground with every other car owner.

Any United States Tire is a universal full money's worth—backed up with a leadership policy of equal quality, buying convenience and price for everybody.
